

THE VALUE OF A SHIPPING PRODUCTS PARTNER

What qualities should you look for when choosing a shipping products partner?

PERSONAL ACCOUNT MANAGEMENT

With Staples, you get a dedicated Account Manager who handles every aspect of your account, from product recommendations to simplifying ordering and more.

EXPERTISE IN THE SHIPPING INDUSTRY

Our Staples specialists work as an extension of your team. And with an average tenure of over 15 years, they bring dedication, experience and expertise to your business.

15+ YEARS

PRODUCTS ALWAYS IN-STOCK

Low-cost can often mean low-availability. Saving a little money doesn't do much good if your shipments are always on back order. With our vast network of shipping products suppliers and retail stores, you won't have to worry about being caught short of supply.

CUSTOMER SERVICE RESPONSE TIME

Shipping problems tend to domino, causing other problems throughout your organization. They need to be addressed and fixed promptly. Knowing this, our customer service team is always available to solve any issues with your order.

BREADTH OF PRODUCTS AVAILABLE

Staples has over 500,000 products, so you can get everything your business needs to succeed. All in one place.

QUALITY REFERRALS

Are your current vendor's customers willing to endorse them? Staples has approximately 270,000 customers ranging from mid-size businesses (20 or more employees) to Fortune 1000 multinational corporations to federal and state government institutions. And we're committed to providing the service necessary to turn every one of them into a solid reference.

COMPLETE ORDERS

As one of the largest e-retailers in the world, we deliver not just products but confidence that your order will be 100% complete.
